

INTERMOUNTAIN CATHOLIC

OFFICE 249 MAIN.
TELEPHONE 167.
INTERMOUNTAIN CATHOLIC MAY be found on day of publication at following news stands:
Salt Lake News Co., 71 East Second South street.
L. E. Hammel, 49 East Second South street.
Barrow Bros., 49 West Second South.
TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

M. J. Shannon has been appointed collector and assessor for the states of Idaho and Montana. The management speaks for him all the assistance our friends can give. He bears with him a letter of introduction.

SALT LAKE

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

There is not now and never has been any question as to Salt Lake City being the hub of the mountain country. The year will close with a very substantial margin that of last year, which means that all previous records will be demolished. It is estimated that Salt Lake merchants and business men will do not less than $25,000,000 of business in 1903, which is an advance of several millions over 1902. Already all of the immediately adjacent states are regular patrons and California, Oregon, Washington, Nebraska and some in the far east are calling for various Utah products.

General George F. Alford, who came to Salt Lake for the purpose of organizing a camp of Confederate veterans, is leaving with great success. In conjunction with the organization of a camp of Confederate veterans in Salt Lake, which has been undertaken by General George F. Alford, he has been an effort made to organize a chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The invitation is signed by Mesdames Kate B. Anderson, George H. Wood, T. P.
Stiffley and others.

Miss Joanna H. Sprague was elected librarian of the city free public library, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Miss Annie E. Chapman. Miss Julia T. Lynch was promoted to the position of assistant librarian and Miss Estelle Riley was promoted from night to day assistant.

On Oct. 1, according to the librarian's report, there were 21,366 volumes in the public library, which is an increase of 25 volumes over the previous month.
Total membership to above date is 10, 846; 7,265 books were loaned for home use and 5,579 were issued in the reading rooms during the month.

George A. Smith, son of Apostle John Henry Smith, was made an apostle, and Francis M. Lyman was elected president of the quorum of apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at the October session of the semi-annual conference. These selections were made to fill the vacancies caused by the recent death of Brigham Young. The choosing of Mr. Lyman as president of the quorum of twelve necessitates his recall as president of the Mormon mission in the British Isles, and his place there will be filled by Apostle Heber J. Grant, recently returned from a mission to Japan.

We wish to announce to our friends and patrons that our stock of Fall and Winter Millinery is now ready.
Up-to-date designs in suitable and serviceable headwear for both young and
old. The Wonder Millinery Co., 52
Main Street.

The Los Angeles papers say that the deal between a number of local capitalists and Landlord C. S. Holmes of the Angelo hotel for the purchase of the famous hotel has been completed, and the deal includes a ten years' lease of the furniture and fixtures. Mr. Holmes devote his entire attention to the Knutsford hotel and his Salt Lake interests.

Hoyt Sherman left this week for Washington to participate in the ceremonies connected with the unveiling of the statue of General Sherman, Oct. 15.
The monument is located on the reservoir grounds, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Fifteenth street, and the statue of the Army of the Tennessee the Army of the Potomac and the Army of the Union will be unveiled. From Washington Mr. Sherman goes to New York to attend a meeting of the directors of the J. C. Sherman Estate company, and will be away over a month.

WANTED—Agent to solicit trade in furniture for home and office. Liberal terms. Call at 45 Richards street, Salt Lake.

The Wonder Millinery wishes to announce to its friends and patrons that they are now ready to supply the ladies, both young and old, with Fall and Winter Headwear. Address 52
Main Street.

It is an old saying that "six per cent interest makes the world." Money out at interest makes a man independently rich (unless that ready to supply the
ladies, both young and old, with Fall
and Winter Headwear. Address 52
Main Street.

CATHEDRAL NOTES.

Mrs. W. H. McDermott and Mrs. W.
Bentz are the ladies appointed to attend to the altar this week.

Mass was celebrated at Bingham last Sunday by Rev. Father Morrissey.

The members of the Sodality of the Children of Mary will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 o'clock mass on Sunday. The regular monthly meeting will be held at St. Mary's academy in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Inter-mountain Catholic is on sale at St. Mary's every Sunday and can be procured at the news stands in the city.

Rehearsal for the children of the Junior choir is held every Saturday at 3:15. Parents are requested to see that their children attend.

The rent for the last quarter is now due and should be paid to the secretary.

The members of the Altar Society of the Cathedral hold their usual monthly meeting last Monday.

Honorary devotions are held every night this month at St. Mary's at 7:30.
On Wednesday and Friday evenings the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given.

Rev. Father T. H. Malone of Denver

OLD-TIME CATHOLIC LAID TO REST

Thomas B. O'Reilly Departed This Life Friday, October 2—Funeral Obsequies at St. Mary's.

We wish to announce to our friends
and patrons that our stock of Fall
and Winter Millinery is now ready.
Up-to-date designs in suitable and
serviceable headwear for both young and
old. The Wonder Millinery Co., 52
Main Street.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Hester Lavette of Oakland, Cal., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. H.
Tarbet. Miss Lavette, who is Mr. Tarbet's niece, is a very charming young lady and will be warmly welcomed by Salt Lake society.

Samuel Newhouse is in the city, having returned Monday from an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan L. Lovey are at home to their friends at the St. James hotel.

Dr. S. H. Pinkerton left Sunday for New York, where he has been called by the illness of his mother.

Mrs. J. A. Gill, Miss Gill and Miss Rose Donahue, who have been the guests of Mrs. Robert Craig of this city, left during the week for their home in Vineta, T.

Mrs. Fred Hale entertained at a luncheon at the Country club Thursday.

M. J. O'Meara, the Tonopah mining magnate, has returned from a flying trip to the Nevada camp. He reports the Alpine mine looking bigger and better than ever with an increased tonnage coming to the smelters.

Miss Emma Maddison left Sunday evening for Grand Junction.

E. F. Freudenthal, manager of the Manhattan of Nevada, is in the city and reports that fair progress is being made at the property.

Superintendent Hickey of the Comstock stock is down from that property to remain here several days caring for an injured finger.

Mrs. T. R. Black will leave about the middle of the month for a six weeks' visit in Chicago.

James Stark of Eureka spent a few days here last week.

J. Driscoll of Eureka was in the city last week.

Edward Fitzpatrick is fast convalescing from typhoid fever.

Mrs. Andrew Cronin and children have gone to Butte to visit her sisters, Mrs. Norton and Mrs. Mullins.

Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald and children came from Salt Lake City last week to visit the capital for ten days. Mrs.
Fitzgerald was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Conroy.

Dr. F. E. Roche of Corinne, accompanied by his daughters, the Misses Edith and Elinore, spent the past week in the city.

The many friends of genial "Dan" Nickum will be pleased to hear that his eyes are very much improved, after a six weeks' serious siege with neuralgia.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Shanley of Park City spent the past week in the city, attending the State fair and visiting friends.

Mrs. Timothy Harnett of Sutton, Neb., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mc-Keague.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jenkinson are the happy parents of a little daughter, who was born last week.

The social given at the residence of Senator and Mrs. Kearns for the benefit of the Altar society of St. Mary's cathedral last Thursday night was a success in every way. A full account of the enjoyable affair will appear in next week's issue of The Intermountain Catholic.

OGDEN CITY.

Children of Mary Society Elect Officers.

(Special Correspondence.) Wednesday afternoon the members of the Children of Mary assembled in their usual place of meeting for the annual election of officers. The large number present and the manner in which each entered into the question of the election was a striking evidence of the interest which is taken in the welfare of the sodality.

After the last vote had been counted, Rev. Father Cushman, in his kind and gentle way, made a few appropriate remarks relative to the progress of the sodality and the duties of its members.
He then turned the reverend father's words of encouragement and praise will serve as a stimulus to lead Mary's children "upward and onward" in the path of duty.

Following are the names of the newly-elected officers: President, Miss Be-McCarthy; vice president, Miss Anna Moran; secretary, Miss Bessie Callahan; treasurer, Miss Daisy Magnus.

Funeral Services.

Funeral services were conducted at St. Joseph's church Sunday afternoon over the remains of the late August McDonald, who died at the age of 32 years. The interment took place at Mountain view cemetery.

The daughter of Mrs. Delaney, who lives at 2415 Lincoln avenue, was accidentally shot in the left leg just above the ankle Sunday evening by two young lads named Victor Turner and Carl Suntz, who were returning from a hunting expedition. Turner was carrying a .22 rifle and he thinks that the rifle went off accidentally, the discharge striking the girl in the leg. Her injury is supposed not to be serious.

PAROCITY.

Senator Clark had a conference in Ogden with Senator Kearns of Utah and Superintendent Wells of the San Pedro road. It was practically decided that a branch road will be built from Land, on the San Pedro, to the iron mines of Iron county, Utah. The flux-ing will be secured at the smelters at Murray, and a large iron works will be established in the valley.

Incidents, Accidents and Personal

Features of the Week.

(Special Correspondence.)
Mr. and Mrs. James Kearns are visiting in Salt Lake this week.

Foreman Hickey of the Comstock went to the city Saturday.

D. B. Shields spent Saturday in the metropolis attending to legal business.

Dr. and Mrs. Donohue returned from the city Wednesday.

John Burke, employed at the New York, met with a painful accident Sat-

LATE THOMAS B. O'REILLY.

From a photograph taken twenty-five years ago, the only one in existence.

The sudden death of T. B. O'Reilly last Friday came as a terrible blow to his wife and friends. He was a man well known and beloved by people throughout the state, and his death felt sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife.

A refined, quiet Christian gentleman, the tenderest memories of him will increase in the hearts and minds of hundreds of friends.

The death and burial of T. B. O'Reilly was in keeping with his life. For over thirty years he knelt Sunday after Sunday before the altar of St.
Mary's, and on Wednesday morning at the solemn high mass every honor that could be paid to a faithful child of the church was bestowed upon him.

Rev. Father Kiely celebrated the mass, assisted by Rev. Father Morrissey as deacon, Rev. Father Curran, sub-deacon, and Rev. Father Donovan, master of ceremonies.

Rev. Bishop Scanlan occupied his usual position in the sanctuary, and at the conclusion of the mass performed the final services over the remains, after which he delivered a brief but impressive eulogy over the deceased.

The funeral sermon preached by Rev.
Father Kiely was a rare beautiful tribute to the life and character of Mr.
O'Reilly.

Father Kiely said, in part:
"It is appointed for all men once to die."

The uncertainty of this life, i. e., the span allotted to us by Providence, is the one great problem that meets us at every step we take. There is no exception to this law. Young and old, rich and poor, the humblest peasant and most powerful monarch are its application. The sentence is universal in its application. Before its greatness ceases, wealth vanishes, ambition is lost, and as we gaze on its victims we are reminded that the end is great.
Goodness and virtue are man's richest treasure and St. Paul's ambition to be crucified with Christ is in the end the most desirable, for his hopes of happiness are permanent, and will materialize in the morning of eternity. It is only a question of a few years when it will be said, the time appointed by God is gone. It is appointed for all men to die. This time will come to each of us very rapidly, so much so that before we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the
shock caused by the death of some
departed friend, others follow in quick
succession, and we are left to reflect
that the wounds always caused by death
will be very rapidly so much so that be-
fore we have fully recovered from the shock caused